This bibliography is primarily intended to be used by students and teachers of Classics. The choice of authors and titles has been determined by the demands of academic study and instruction. We have not aimed at completeness - e.g. in the enumeration of translations - but the information given has been brought up to date as far as possible.

We have tried to combine a rough chronological order with a systematical point of view. This involves some inconvenience - e.g. in the placing of Rhetoric, Literary Criticism, and Epigram - but it seemed the best solution for practical purposes.

The following abbreviations have been used:

t. = text
c. = commentary
tr. = translation
n. = notes
edn = edition
pb. = paperbound
repr. = reprint

The first four of these indications have been omitted in the case of the following series, the character of which is assumed to be well-known:

Bibliotheca Teubneriana (B.T.)
Bibliothek der alten Welt (BAW)
Collection des Universités de France (Budé)
Corpus Medicorum Graecorum (CMG)
Die griechischen christlichen Schriftsteller der ersten Jahrhunderte (GCS)
Loeb Classical Library (Loeb)
Macmillan's Classical Series (Cl.S.)
Oxford Classical Texts (O.C.T.)
Penguin Classics (Penguin)
Sources Chrésiennes (SC)
Tusculum Bücherei (Tusc.)

The place of reprinting has been mentioned only in those cases where it differs from that of the original publication.

The present work was first published in 1953 and has been reprinted with corrections and additions four times in the course of the years. It now appears for the first time in English.

Thanks are due to Mr. G. van de Geijn, who typed the manuscript, composed the Index, and supervised the lay-out.
